

ARTE Y PUREZA
Buleria Workshop
October 23-24, 2009
Houston, Texas

Javier Heredia
Singer/Dancer

Born in Seville, Javier Heredia inherited a knowledge of cante and baile casero from his father and his grandfather. He worked on the docks of Seville's Guadalquivir River until his talent as a singer-dancer was recognized by the patriarchs of Seville's flamenco community. He toured as a soloist with Manuela Carrasco's company in 2004 and has performed repeatedly in the Bienal de Sevilla, the Mont de Marsan Festival in France and other important Spanish flamenco festivals. He has toured the USA as a member of Arte y Pureza and has worked with Jose Mercé, Arcangel, Manuel Molina, El Extremeño, and Juana la del Pipa amongst others.

Ethan Margolis
Guitarist/Director

As director of Arte y Pureza Flamenco Co. Ethan has led his company on two sold-out tours through the U.S. For the past 9 years Mr. Margolis has been quietly perfecting his craft in Sevilla, Spain where he has become one of the most respected young accompanists in the exclusive circle of Gypsies dedicated to purity. He produced and played on Miguel Funi's latest CD "Aires Gitanos", and has worked with such greats as Concha Vargas, Tomas Perrate, Manuel de Paula, Curro Fernandez, Las Peligros and Joselito Fernandez. His current projects include his Flamenco Rock opera "Spanish Day" as well as an upcoming U.S. tour with the famed singer Inés Bacán in October of 2009.
